Fund Investment Objective and Strategy

The Sub-Fund aims to provide a high level of income and capital appreciation over the medium to long term by investing primarily in a portfolio of global fixed income securities (in particular, high yield bonds (i.e. below investment grade and unrated bonds)). The Sub-Fund may invest in assets denominated in currencies other than its base currency (i.e. USD).

Debt securities (or the issuers of such debt securities) that the Sub-Fund seeks to invest in are across all durations/ratings. The Sub-Fund seeks to invest primarily (i.e. at least 70% of its Net Asset Value) directly in below investment grade corporate debt securities (rated below Moody's "Baa3" or below Standard & Poor's "BBB-" or equivalent rating by other internationally recognised rating agencies, or rated AA or below by a Mainland credit rating agency). While these credit ratings provided by the relevant rating agencies serve as a point of reference, the Manager will conduct its own assessment on the credit quality based on various factors, including leverage level, operating margin, return on capital, interest coverage, operating cash flows, industry outlook, competitive position in the market and corporate governance.

Fund Manager Comments

In May, Global markets in May were driven jointly by geopolitical tensions in the Middle East, hotter-than-expected inflation prints, and delayed market expectations for Federal Reserve rate cuts. The U.S.-Iran conflict persisted throughout the month, with negotiations oscillating between de-escalation and renewed hostilities: a ceasefire appeared within reach early in the month before talks collapsed, lifting crude oil prices. A preliminary agreement was struck at month-end to extend the truce by 60 days, reopen the Strait of Hormuz and resume nuclear negotiations, compressing the geopolitical risk premium. Concurrently, U.S. April headline CPI rose 3.8% year-on-year while core CPI came in at roughly 2.8%. PPI data also beat consensus estimates, alongside robust retail sales and manufacturing readings, reinforcing the "higher-for-longer" rate narrative. The narrative shifted modestly late in the month on softer core PCE figures and a downward revision to Q1 GDP growth. U.S. Treasury yields surged sharply before retracing amid this volatility, with the yield curve exhibiting bull flattening. Market pricing for Fed policy tightened materially, pushing the first rate cut out to late 2026 or early 2027.

The fund allocates selectively to high-yield bonds. It dynamically adjusts portfolio duration in response to evolving economic indicators and market conditions to generate incremental returns. Adopting a blend of strategic allocation and tactical trading, the fund captures market opportunities.
